invite you to participate at

25th INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE
" EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH AND SCHOOL PRACTICE "

MOTIVATION IN EDUCATION: BETWEEN THEORY AND PRACTICE

Belgrade, October 30, 2020

Motivation is considered to be the most important component of educational process as it contributes to the quality of education, educational achievement and development of entire personality. Development of motivation in education is a great challenge nowadays, generating the need for constant reconsideration and improvement of education. In this way, motivation of all participants in educational process and creators of education policies becomes one of the most important conditions and factors of the quality of education.

The Conference goal is to: view in extensive and systematic manner the role of motivation in education; comprehensively review and unify the current theoretical and empirical knowledge on motivation and its implications for educational practice; analyse the manner and extent of using the available academic knowledge in education system, and how it could be further developed and applied, not only for the purpose of improving the quality of education, but also for resolving current problems regarding the motivation of all participants in educational process.

The Conference topics include:

- Theoretical perspectives and different approaches to motivation in education;
- Research on motivation in education: methodological approaches and problems;
- Different aspects of motivation development in education;
- Strategies and models for improving motivation in educational process and teaching practice;
- Motivation issues of participants in educational process and their overcoming;
- Conceptualization of motivation in educational policies.

The Conference will be held on October 30, 2020 in Belgrade.
